LIFE THOUGHTS – Lord God lovingly adopts each of us by baptism into Christ Jesus. Though earthly fathers often fail, He perfectly provides and protects (Luke 11:11-13). Participating in these uplifting labors, even by caring for bodies and spirits that are not our own children, becomes our highest privilege. Prayer: Heavenly Father, let Your fatherly, divine goodness and mercy live in me. Amen. Life Thoughts are based on the appointed readings from Lutheran Service Book

LIFE QUOTES – “Men, do not hesitate to engage in the battle that is raging around you, the battle that is wounding our children and families, the battle that is distorting the dignity of both women and men. This battle is often hidden, but the battle is real. It is primarily spiritual, but it is progressively killing the remaining Christian ethos in our society and culture, and even in our own homes.” Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life -www.lutheransforlife.org

STEWARDSHIP – Luke 11:11 “What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent?” A generous, giving spirit comes from knowing that you have a generous, giving Father. He will care for our needs – we are therefore free to reflect His generosity in our lives. We can be generous in raising our children, supporting the Church, and serving our neighbor in the community. In these three areas (home, Church, and society) the Lord has called us to show His grace and generosity to those around us. Stewardship bulletin blurbs are provided by LCMS Stewardship Ministry
