LIFE THOUGHTS – Our bodily life matters so much to God that He incarnated human flesh Himself. Even after accomplishing atonement by His body's brokenness, He did not discard it but inhabits it by resurrection as His eternal instrument (John 20:27). When we are physically suffering sin's consequences, our Savior's words of forgiveness breathe healing (John 20:21-23), and His ways of faith bring peace into our very bodies. Prayer: Lord Jesus, let me take hold of You by faith until Your wounded and resurrected body redeems my own. Amen. "Life Thoughts" are based on the appointed readings from Lutheran Service Book.

LIFE QUOTES - "On Easter Sunday, Christ became the first fruits of the resurrection (1 Corinthians 15:20). Because He lives ... you and I shall live and never die (John 11:25-26). This joyous message is for all ages because all who believe in Jesus have life in His name (John 20:31)." Ryan C. MacPherson, Bethany Lutheran College, Mankato, Minnesota – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life - www.lutheransforlife.org

STEWARDSHIP – John 20:19 "On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." Fear is the opposite of faith, that is, the kind of cringing fear we have in the face of something that is hostile to us and more powerful to us. Jesus spends a lot of His time telling the disciples to not be afraid. Our fears constantly hem us in and prevent us from following the Lord's will. But there is no need to fear. Jesus has conquered. No fear can keep us locked up: we have been set free by Jesus for lives that declare His marvelous deeds. Stewardship Bulletin Sentences are provided by LCMS Stewardship Ministry.
